Dear Mr. Sai:

I am responding to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated September 11, 2019, originally submitted to the Department of Treasury and received in our office on October 23, 2019.

I am unable to send the information you requested by November 21, 2019, which is the 20 business-day period allowed by law. I apologize for any inconvenience this delay may cause.

STATUTORY EXTENSION OF TIME FOR RESPONSE

The FOIA allows an additional ten-day statutory extension in certain circumstances. To complete your request, I need additional time to search for, collect and review responsive records from other locations. We have extended the statutory response date to December 6, 2019, after which you can file suit. An administrative appeal is limited to a denial of records, so it does not apply in this situation.

REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL EXTENSION OF TIME

Unfortunately, we will still be unable to locate and consider release of the requested records by December 6, 2019. We have extended the response date to February 14, 2020 when we believe we can provide a final response.

You do not need to reply to this letter if you agree to this extension. You may wish to consider limiting the scope of your request so that we can process it more quickly. If you want to limit your request, please contact the individual named below. If we subsequently deny your request, you still have the right to file an administrative appeal.

You may contact me the FOIA Public Liaison, David Nimmo, to discuss your request at:

24000 Avila Road, M/S 2201
Laguna Niguel, CA 92677
949-575-6328

The FOIA Public Liaison responds to FOIA and Privacy Act requests for copies of documents maintained by the IRS. There is no provision in either Act to resolve tax, collection, or processing issues and our staff is not trained to answer questions regarding those issues. If you need assistance with tax related issues, you may call the IRS toll free number at 1-800-829-1040.

If you are unable to resolve your FOIA dispute through the FOIA Public Liaison, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS), the Federal FOIA Ombudsman's Office, offers mediation services to help resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies. The contact information for OGIS is:

Office of Government Information Services
National Archives and Records Administration

College Park, MD 20740-6001

You may file suit if you do not agree to an extension beyond the statutory period. Your suit may be filed in the U.S. District Court:

- Where you reside or have your principal place of business
- Where the records are located, or
- In the District of Columbia

You may file suit after December 6, 2019. Your complaint will be treated according to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applicable to actions against an agency of the United States. These procedures require that the IRS be notified of the pending suit through service of process, which should be directed to:

Commissioner of Internal Revenue
Attention: CC:PA: Br 6/7
1111 Constitution Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20224

The FOIA provides access to existing records. Extending the time period for responding to your request will not delay or postpone any administrative, examination, investigation or collection action.

If you have any questions please call Tax Law Specialist Reinita L House ID # 1000201731, at 615-250-5413 or write to: Internal Revenue Service, Centralized Processing Unit – Stop 211, PO Box 621506, Atlanta, GA 30362. Please refer to case number F20296-0089.

Sincerely,
